

Volunteers who serve on Tigard’s boards and committees are foundational to informing the development of the city’s programs and policies. Applications are available to submit year-round. As board and committee opportunities arise, the Tigard team will review applications submitted up until that date. Tigard welcomes people of all backgrounds and experiences. Thank you for your interest.

Please select the Board(s) and Committee(s) you are interested in. If you would like to apply for more than one, rank your choices numerically starting with one (1 = Most Interested).
