MAN CHARGED WITH ATTEMPTED MURDER

Tigard Police are investigating an attack that happened this afternoon, leading one man to be charged with attempted murder.

At 12:55 PM officers responded to an RV parked along SW Wall Street. Investigators believe two men were inside the RV when one attacked the other. The victim was stabbed with a household tool and severely beaten.

Officers arrested Edward Davis, 22, on charges of attempted murder and assault II. Mr. Davis also had two warrants out for his arrest.

The victim was taken to the hospital for treatment and is expected to survive.
