Tigard Police Seeking Help Identifying Robbery Suspect

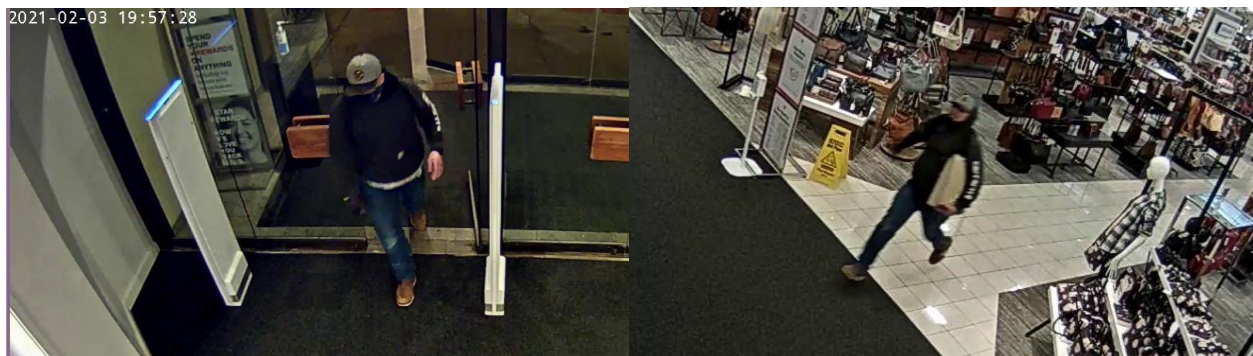

Tigard Police detectives are asking for your help in identifying a robbery suspect.

Just before 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, February 3rd, a man came up to the jewelry counter in Macy's at the Washington Square Mall, smashed a glass case and ran off with more than two dozen gold necklaces. The combined value of the stolen jewelry is estimated at more than $30,000.

A jewelry counter employee described the man as white and approximately 6 feet tall, with an average build and blonde hair. He was wearing a black sweatshirt, a baseball hat and a black mask with white writing on it.

An employee followed the man as he ran out of the store and toward a parking structure. The suspect told the employee he had a friend in the car with a gun. The employee stopped giving chase and nobody was hurt.

Detectives are releasing surveillance video (<https://youtu.be/p1FjjVN0E6Q>) and several still images of the suspect in hopes that someone recognizes the man, or the clothing he was wearing. If you have any information that can help in this investigation, you can leave a tip by calling 503-718-COPS or emailing tips@tigard-or.gov. You can remain anonymous.
