Officers Arrest a Suspect in a Bank Robbery

Around 2:46pm on February 6, 2020, officers were dispatched to Bank of the West at 16200 SW Pacific Highway on a report of a bank robbery. The suspect fled the scene with an undisclosed amount of money.

Officers located a subject matching the suspect's physical and vehicle description driving southbound on 99W and stopped him near Langer Farms on SW Langer Parkway. He was taken into custody without incident and was positively identified as the suspect in the bank robbery.

No one was injured during this incident. Detectives are currently investigating this case.

We want to thank our partners Tualatin, Sherwood, and King City Police Departments and the Washington County Sheriff's Office for their assistance on this call.
