Arrest Made in Store Robbery

On Tuesday, December 15th at 5:46 p.m. Tigard Police officers responded to a call of an armed robbery (weapon implied) at the Shell gas station at 11290 SW Bull Mountain Road. The clerk reported that a man came into the store and tried to buy cigarettes without I.D. He threatened to shoot her if she did not sell him the cigarettes. While a weapon was never shown, the man put his hand in his jacket and implied he had a weapon. He then paid for the cigarettes and left the store, but came back and stole a beer.

Responding officers found a man matching the suspect's description walking along SW Frontage Road near Canterbury Square. The clerk positively identified the man as the one who threatened her in the store. Officers identified him as Dylan Cote, age 26. Cote was arrested and taken to jail charged with second-degree robbery. His booking photo is attached.
